MR.QUAY AT HEADQUARTERS

HE TAKES PART IN THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING.

CHAIRMAN HANNA TO LEAVE HIM IN CHARGE

AND START FOR CHICAGO TO NIGHT-THE WORK OUTLINED.

All interest at the Republican headquarters yesterday centred in the meeting of the Executive Committee, at which, for the first time, Senator Quay was present. The former chairman of the National Committee came to the city from Phila-delphia and went to the Waldorf, where he saw Chairman Hanna. Early in the afternoon Mr. Quay arrived at headquarters and was cordially greeted by the Republican leaders there. Colonel Swords had the field clear for operations. No vistrors were present requesting an interview with the campaign managers, and the conference of the Executive Committee was promptly held in the private room adjoining Mr. Hanna's office.

The session lasted several hours. Among those present were Garret A. Hobart, General Osborne, Cornelius N. Bliss, General Clayton and N. B. It was expected at first that Henry C. Payne, W. T. Durbin, Cyrus Leland and Charles G. Dawes, members of the Executive Committee from the West, would be present, but a subsequent decision to hold another conference in the Chicago headquarters, at which these members will be present, altered the original programme. The confer-ence here primarily related to the installation of Senator Quay in the New-York headquarters, and the presence of the Western representatives was

The chairman alluded to the previous experience of Senator Quay and the sucwhich attended his administration of affairs in a National campaign.

SUBJECT TO COMMAND.

The Senator declared that his services were at the command of the leaders, and that he was "prepared to go at once into the harness" and report when Mr. Hanna desired. The proposition to install the Pennsylvaniah here immediately was approved by all present. Senator Quay was therefore proved by an present. Senator ignay was therefore teceived as one of the active managers of the campaign in the New-York headquarters. The arrangements regarding the office and other details in connection with his work were reserved for subsequent consequention. The Senator inquired into the status of the campaign, and Mr. Bliss reviewed the progress made so far in the management of financial details. The disbursements for large meetings, heavy distributions of documents and the working expenses were considered, and suggestions were offered by Senator Quay regarding the quarters in which satisfactory results could be attained.

The hot fight which is being made in West Virsints came up for consideration. N. B. Scott has charge of details in the campaign in the Pan Handie State, and the work already accomplished by him was received in full. Correspondence from rustworthy sources was submitted, showing the weak places in the Bryan following and the opportunity for Republican success if a vigorous campaign be continued. It was decided to extend the work there by the engagement of prominent speakers who have not already been assigned and are available, to make certain of West Virginia's six electoral votes in the column for McKinley and

The opportunity for Republican success in the South has been pointed out by Senator Quay, and he was inclined yesterday to consider active campsign work in Maryland, Kentucky, Alabama and North Carolina, whose combined electoral vote of forty-three, he showed, would be more to McKinley the whole thirty-four votes of Colorado, ldaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, North and South Dakots, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. The Executive Committee was disposed to go into the couttern States more extensively than at any time

With the installation of Senator Quay in headquarters here, Chairman Hanna said that no further business remained to delay his departure for the Chicago headquarters beyond the completion of details to-day. He will start for the expecting to be gone about a forinight. He thought last night that he would stop at

Among the callers yesterday morning who saw Mr. Hanna was General Adam E. King, who heads Mr. Hanna was General Adam E. King, who heads the Republican electoral ticket of Maryland. "I'm the Republican electoral ticket of Maryland. "I'm M. A. Mayendorff, of New-York, who is to superconfidence in Maryland's electoral vote going for confidence in Maryland's electoral vote goi jority much higher. Of course, I have reasons for a new election law, by which a fair count is assured. That means a great deal to us. while the Republican party is united and working with great earnestness, the Democratic party in Maryland is completely disorganized. There is not one Republican of any prominence who is not heartily supporting the National ticket, while, on the other hand, with the exception of Mr. Gorman and a few personal friends, there is no prominent bemocrat in the State who is supporting Bryan.
There is some silver sentiment among our farmers, but it is not strong enough to induce them to cut the ticket to any extent, and, whatever there is, it is far more than offset by the sound-money Democrats who are flocking to the Mc-Kinley standard. As an example of these, I may name Colonel Randolph Barton, of Baltimore, who was Democratic elector-at-large and has resigned his place on the ticket to join hands with us in the election of McKinley. All of the prominent Democrats who have hitherto contributed to the support of the party are against Bryan, and many of them openly declare that they will vote the Re-publican ticket. The Baltimore Sun, the most influential Democratic paper in the State, and The News, the only Democratic evening paper in the city, are vigorously supporting McKinley."

Another encouraging view of the situation in Maryland was given by J. Cookman Boyd, a Baltimore lawyer, and elector-at-large on the Repubmore lawyer, and elector-at-large on the Republican ticket. He said: "I have travelled all over the State of Maryland, and met and takked with the State of Maryland, and met and takked with and people, and have found to my perfect satisfication that the reported disaffection among the faction that the reported disaffection among the Republicans is purely mythical, and that the wish among the Bryan Democrats that there wish among the Bryan Democrats that there wish among the Heyan that there wish among the Republicans is father to the thought. I could not find any sliver Republicans. The majority of the ordinary Democrats are falling into line for the Bryan ticket, and that gives rise to the reports of the sliver up-rising, when in fact, the alleged remarkable sliver rising, when in fact, the alleged remarkable sliver rising, when in fact, the alleged remarkable sliver is lined to a sliver uprising does not in any manner later. It is rather a gold uprising, and that is composed of the entire Republican party, and many, a great many. I may say, of the best element in the Democratic party.

EX-SENATOR BRUCE A CALLER. Ex-Senator Blanche K. Bruce, of Washington. D. C., and formerly of Mississippi, called at headquarters. He will soon make a speaking tour in the Atlantic States and then in the Middle West. "I do not discover a discouraging feature anywhere," said the ex-Senator. "I have been travelling a great deal recently and have taken pains to ascertain the feeling in different parts of the country and among all classes of our citizens. I have found little defection from the ranks and what there is is made up to us ten times over by the accession of sound-money Democrats. The colored people have no use for the silver theorists. They are strongly in favor of protection and equally in favor of sound mency. It will be a rare thing to find a colored silverite. Bryan is surely loshing ground. When you take out the impression he makes by his personal presence and remove the brass band element also, there is nothing left of "I do not discover a discouraging feature any

W. Irwin Martin, who was a member of the Executive Committee of the Business Men's Republican Organization four years ago, and who is greatly interested in a similar movement this fail, reported at headquarters yesterday that the work of organizing is going on rapidly, and that the associations of tradesmen will exert a marked influence on the campaign. He said: "The general Executive Committee expects to meet this week for the purpose of mapping out work. Already a permit has been obtained for the great parade, which will take place on the Saturday preceding election day, October 3. The procession will move from the Battery up Broadway, passing the reviewing stand at the Worth Monument in front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and continuing up Fiftheave, to Fifty-ninth-st., where it will be dismissed. The committee expects thirty-five or forty different lines of business to be represented in this parade, but the demonstration will surpass anything of its character ever seen in this country. The business men realize that the election is of cital concern to them and men in their employ."

One of the many letters reporting the good outlook for McKinley and Hobart in various parts of the country was a communication from C B. Oit, a Democrat and a travelling siderman for the Central Glass Works of Wheeling. W Va. which, under date of August 29, written at Minneapolis, says that "the free-silver craze all through the Western country has demoralized business to such an extent that one can scarcely pay expenses on his trip. This being the case while there is yet doubt of Bryan's election, everything in the West will go to sticks if the silver ticket should be successful. My only hope for the bettering of business is the success of McKinley and Hobart."

Major J. Henry Gould, of Boston, formerly chairman of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee and now president of the State Leanue of Republican Clubs, spoke at headquarters about his observations of the situation in the West. He said that he made especial inquiry into the condition of affairs in the principal States of the debatable territory, and that, while there is good ground for hope of ultimate victory, there can be no question about the necessity for hard work to make victory certain. Colonel Stone of the Executive Committee from California, tool him, he said that the outlook in that State three weeks also was bad, but the acadinate report of the Committee on Credentials in American Carolina, States of the debatable territory, and that, while there is good ground for hope of ultimate victory, there can be no question about the necessity for hard work to make victory can be appropriated to the condition of a flash in the condition of the state of the States of the debatable territory, and that the outlook in that State three weeks also was one of honor and he prophesied that McKinley would have a Republican Congress.

The results of the debatable territory, and that the outlook in that State three weeks als has engendered no incompanion of his friendliness contrary has given such evidences of his friendliness toward our people that they hold him in high regard. North Carolina is one of the richest States in the Union in undeveloped resources. Hence we need and must have protection. The tariff is the most important issue with us. Our iron ore is of the finest qualmanufacturing interests, as our lumber, wood and manufacturing interests, have suffered under the Wil-son law, and our people feel it keenly. They have seen the benefits of proper protection and the injury according from the opposite policy."

CAMPAIGN WORK IN THE WEST. ENCOURAGING REPORTS TO THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Sept. 1.-Committeeman Durbin received a telegram at Republican National Headquarters | nomin would be here next Saturday. Mr. Durbin returned yesterday from his weekly visit to Indiana. He said the free-sliver movement had been successfully arrested in Indiana by perfect organization. He said that nine men would vote for gold money in November in that State to one for silver. A sixtypoil of the State is now being taken, and great help is expected from the Democrats. Congressman McCleary, of Minnesota, whose speeches on the tariff and money in Congress have brought him into demand on the stump, arrived in that State, as the organization was in excellent condition.

When Chairman Hanna arrives at the Republican National Headquarters, as close estimates and reports from States and counties of the proxies of the work as can be obtained will be ready for his inspection. These reports will begin to arrive here in a day or two. Meantime the National Headquarters is being flooded with requests for sound-money and tartiff literature, and the work of filling these requests and preparing editorial and other matter for the country press keeps the large force in the Auditorium busily engaged.

There were mainly men and women of only local prominence in their various towns or counties. Plans are on foot for an excursion of locomotive engineers to Canton. To-day a delegation of members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers (alled at National Headquarters to make arrangements for the contemplated excursion. Major McRinley will be commanded with and a date arranged when it will be convenient for him to receive the engineers and address them.

ILLINOIS REPUBLICAN LEAGUE MEETS.

The convention met at 1 o'clock a.m., and adjourned at 1.39 p. m. Speeches were made by Fresident Raymond, Judge Yates, son of the late United States Senator Richard Yates; Congressman McClary, of Minnesota: Congressman George W. Prince, of Illinois: Congressman Graff, and others.

The parade to-night, which was brilliant and imposing, excorted Governor Hastings to the Tabernacle, where he delivered the principal address of the convention. Great disappointment was felt at heabsence of John R. Tamer, Republican candidate for Governor, who is still ill at West Baden Springs, Governor, who is still ill at West Baden Springs, Ind. A telegram of congratulation was sent to Major McKinley, containing the assurance that Illinois would roll up an old-time majority for him.

MR. SCHURMAN TO TAKE THE STUMP.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 1.-President Schurman of Cornell University, having been invited by the Republican National Committee to make speeches in the present campaign, says in his letter of reply: "The issues of this contest are so grave and nomentous, so inseparably bound up with the momentous, so inseparably bound up with the moral character, the political security and the ma-terial prosperity of the Nation, that, though my personal engagements and official duties are nu-merous. IN SOME OF THE OVERWHELMINGLY DEMOCRATIC ONES NO TICKET WAS NAMED-THE LIST OF NOMINEES AND WHO THEY ARE.

Republican conventions to nominate candidates for the Assembly were called in the thirty-five Assembly districts of the city last evening, and in those districts which are not absolutely controlled by the Democrats candidates were placed in nomina tion. A few nominations were also made in some districts which have been carried by Tammany with unfailing regularity for years, but a number of conventions in Democratic districts were adjourned without attempts to name candidates. Combinations with anti-Tammany Democrats in those districts may be made later.

Assemblymen Charles S. Adler, Patrick H. Murphy, Francis E. Laimbeer, George C. Austin and Harvey T. Andrews were renominated in the districts which they have already represented. Most of the nominaions which were made last evening were practically unanimous, but in a few of the conventions there were contests.

I say at the outset that no subscription of contributions from the public em ployes has been made. I therefore attribute the ployes has been made. I therefore attribute the Secretary's act to his discovery of some contemplated voluntary action on their part. Such voluntary contributions from those dependent for their employment upon the continuance of Democratic control is entirely natural. It would be strange indeed if it were not volunteered, and in liberal amount. McKinley's election will cost them office, and they know it. As against this threat of the Secretary, I take pains to assure all such voluntary contributors that their names will be scrupulously reserved as confidential, at least until the list of our contributors shall be deemed a roll of honor with the success of our campaign.

yesterday an incident occurred at the Demsome time ago when Chatrman Jones and the other practical campaign managers protested convention, at One-hundred-and-statieth-st, and against Mr. St. John's management of the local campaign with the aid of so-called Democrats who only recently avowed their ardor for free silver ray of blunders which have characterized the cor duct of the campaign for Bryan in this city. Conspicuous on the list was O. S. Teall, whose prescomment as was painful to Mr St. John. The treasurer decided that there would have to be Teall. He had entered with a flourish and a colored valet to enlist the howling multitude of silver Republicans whom he expected into the Popaccatle camp and howl for No Republicans and no one else seemed to have any desire to get under "Ollie's" wing, and he had to quit. WEAVER'S PRE-ELECTION "CLAIMS." Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 1.-General J. B. Weaver declares in an interview that Iowa will go at least 20,000 to 35,000 for Bryan. He said:

"There are hundreds of silver Republicans in every county in the State. I have found them wherever I have spoken this rall. In 1822 the vote of the State have spoken this rall. In 182 the vote of the State was, in round figures, 219,000 Republican, 196,000 Democratic and 20,000 Populist. Now the Democrats and Populists have fused. This will leave 3,000 Republican majority over the combined opposition. There will be at the lowest estimate 20,000 Republicans who will vote for Bryan. This is a ridiculously low estimate. It makes the Democratic total 235,000. There will not be to exceed 10,000 McKinley Democrats in the State. Add this number to the Republican will not be to exceed 10,000 McKinley Democrats in the State. Addi this number to the Republican strength, after deducting the number of Republicans who will vote for Bryan, and then deduct it from the Democratic total of 230,000 and we will have about 17,000 majority, which will be a considerable majority for Bryan. This does not take into account the Prohibition vote, which will be a considerable factor, for most of it is silver, and it amounts to 12,000. The State will surely go for Bryan, and my conservative estimate of the majority is 30,000 to 35,000. CONGRESSMAN FOOTE'S CHEERING NEWS.

Wallace T. Foote, jr., member of Congress from Port Henry, New-York, was at the Hofland House yesterday. Mr. Foote has just won an exceedingly warm and interesting fight in his district for the re-nomination to Congress. He dropped in at State headquarters yesterday afternoon to consult about the campaign up the State. He was sanguine that his district, the XXIIId, would give a greater Republican majority this year than ever. He said there was little of the free-coinage sentiment in his part of the State. nimost nothing to make room for A SOLID SOUTH NO MORE.

GOOD CHANCES THAT SEVERAL SOUTHERN

STATES WILL REPUDIATE BRYAN. Washington, Spet. 1 (Special),-The Solid South column in the Democratic calculation is capable of oken in more than one State. Beginning with Maryland and extending at least as far as Louislana, there are several weak spots in the

In Maryland, a State which gave a Republican majority last year, and which has a Republicar administration and Legislature; a State which turned down Senator Gorman, the only Democratic ader, the Democratic party is torn asunder by The sound-money Democrats, especially those of the city of Baltimore, repudiate the Chi-cago ticket. Of the 180 chief officers who sustain the organization in the city, twenty absolutely refuse to have anything to do with the Bryan move-When it is considered that these are the very pillars of a party-the workers whose loyalty to it is usually unquestioned, whatever platform it to it is usually unquestioned, whatever platform it may adopt, or candidates it may nominate—the significance of the fact may be appreciated.

South of Maryland in the "Old Dominion" a similar state of things is found in Richmond and some other portions. The business men are in revolt. The great raifroad lines, sympathetic with commerce, are favoring sound money. The large attendance at the Democratic Sound-Money State Convention was the rallying point of the opposition to free silver.

In the Carolinas, owing to peculiar local conditions, the gold-standard Democracy is less formidable, but even there it is organizing. North Carolina has held a State convention and appointed delegates to Indianapolis. But in that State it is believed the gold men who are in carnest will vote for McKinlev and Hobart. Around Charlotte, Concord, Greensboro, Goldsboro, Winston, Newberne and Wilmington there are numbers who will doubtless take this course. A State which has so sound a system of manufactures cannot fail to see the wisdom of it.

North Carolina, Kentucky, Florida and Louishina are all more or less doubtful States. Florida is largely settled by Northern teople, many of whom are aircady Republicans, and there are others who on National matters will hereafter cooperate with that party. A Kentucky Democrat said to-day he expected to see his State go for McKinley by from 50,000 to 60,000 plurality. An Alabamian who claimed the State for Bryan by a large majority admitted that there were at least 1,000 gold Democrats there who would vote either for the third ticket or for McKinley and Hobart.

DESERTING THE POPOCRATS.

DESERTING THE POPOCRATS.

Indiarapolis, Sept. 1 (Special).—The first effects of the sound-money movement on the regular Popo-eratic organization in Indiana made their appearance to-day. Chairman Holt received three letters of resignation ir his morning's mail, one of them being from Daniel E. Kelley, of Valparaiso, n Porter County, a Xth District elector. in Porter County, a Xth District elector. He assigns as a reason that he is not in sympathy with the Chicago Convention and cannot support its nominees. The other resignations were from Charles F. Piel, starch manufacturer, and James L. Keach, commission merchant, who had accepted places as members of the chairman's Executive Committee. They ascribe the same reason for their action as the elector. A third defection from this committee is that of cx-Congressman George Ford, of South Hend. He never accepted the appointment, but turns up to-day as a delegate-at-large of the Indiana Sound-Money Party.

It is believed that there is more to follow. The immense size of the cenvention, as already demonstrated, has opened the eyes of the timid in the party and has swelled the fears of the Silverites.

MAJOR BYRNE WANTS FUNDS.

Major John Byrne, president of the Democratic at the headquarters, at No. 15 West Twenty-fourthst., that the situation in central and northern New-York was anything but satisfactory, so far as the prospects for a sound-money victory were con cerned, and so he issued a request for more funds to conduct the league campaign. He said:

"There is a large class of people, railroad men, farm laborers and others, who are for Bryan and farm laborers and others, who are for Bryan and free silver through ignorance, and they should be saved. This education alone will do. They are not getting the needed instruction, and cannot hope to get it unless means can be had to enable the work to go on. I never witnessed more hunger for infermation than I witnessed in central New-York.
I had with me several thousand documents which the people who attended the Bryan meeting at Hornellsville last Saturday eagerly carried off."

Several commercial travellers who have been recalled from "the road" on account of depressed business have volunteered their services for afternoons to secure enrolments for the league.

A meeting of the Congress district committee of the league will be held to-night at $230 o'clock in the West Travelly Country.
